

Allotment Photo Competition Rules

1. Photographic entries must have been taken between 1st October 2019 and 5th July 2020 by the plot holder or a person authorised by the plot holder.
2. Each entry must include the name, address, contact telephone number (both daytime and evening) for the photographer/plot holder and the details of the date and plot on which the photo was taken.
3. Entries should be emailed to: allotments@colnetowncouncil.org.uk by midnight on Sunday 5th July 2020 but the organisers accept no responsibility for entries delayed, lost or corrupted.
4. In the event of a technical problem or evidence of impropriety with regard to the public vote, the judges shall have the final decision. If the public vote results in a tie, the judges shall have the casting vote. The judges' decisions will be final, and no correspondence can be entered into.
5. All entries must be the original work of the entrant and must not infringe the rights of any other party. The entrants must be the sole owner of copyright in all photographs entered and must have obtained permission of any people featured in the entries or their parents/guardians if featuring children under 16 years old.
6. Entrants must not have breached any laws when taking their photographs.
7. Prior to submission, entrants must not have offered any of their entries for sale, been paid for any publication of any of their entries or entered them into any other photographic competition.
8. By entering the competition all entrants grant to the Colne Town Council the right to publish and exhibit their photographs on the Council's website and Facebook pages and to include them in any Colne Town Council related publicity or Allotment Calendar, printed or digitally produced.
9. By entering entrants will be deemed to have agreed to be bound by these rules and Colne Town Council reserves the right to exclude any entry from the competition.
10. Colne Town Council reserves the right to cancel this competition

Allotment Photo Competition

Colne Town Council Allotment Plot holders are invited to submit their allotment photos for this year's competition. Prizes will be awarded for the top entry in each of the following categories:

- Best Colne Town Council Allotment Plot.
- Best New Plot. Plot holders should submit two photos for this category giving a before, and after view of their plot if possible.
- Best Young Gardener. To qualify for this category the allotment must have been planted and maintained by a person 12 years old or younger and have the consent of their parent or guardian and the plot holder to enter.
- Best Shed or Greenhouse. Please submit two photos showing inside and outside of the shed or greenhouse.
- Best Allotment Photo. (People's Choice)

Entries will be judged by a panel of judges. The judges will select a shortlist of twelve photographs (the 'Finalists') which, in their opinion, best illustrate the themes of the competition. They will consider a range of factors including composition, technical ability, originality, interpretation of the brief and the commercial appeal of the photographs.

The public will be invited to vote for the finalists photo they like the best. A public vote will take place on Colne Town Council's Facebook page from the 13th to the 26th July and winning entries will be announced on 31st July 2020. The judges will also select their own favourite entry.

While we make every effort to credit photographers, including in printed reproductions of their work, we cannot guarantee that every use of the photographs will include photographers' names.

Deadline for entries is Sunday 5th July 2020.

For each entry please include:
● Your name.
● The names of any one in the photograph.
● Your contact and email address.
● Your Phone Number.
● Plot number and the allotment site.
● The date the photo was taken.
● Which category you want to be considered for.
Send your entries to:
